

Marketo Solution Services

With hundreds of clients both large and small, DemandGen[®] understands the needs of marketing teams across the globe—and our technical and strategic expertise in Marketo drives our clients' success every day. As a Marketo Services Partner, we educate your team, define your processes, and leverage all the power that your Marketo solution has to offer.

MARKETO BUSINESS PROCESS REVIEW

Improve demand generation and lead management performance

In this detailed consultative engagement, we evaluate your marketing operations processes around Marketo, compare our findings with industry best practice, and develop actionable recommendations for greater effectiveness in demand generation and lead management: such as process improvements, technology enhancements, and specific metrics to track.

LEAD SCORING

Improve sales and marketing effectiveness through scoring aligned with Marketo Revenue Cycle Analytics/ Marketo Sales Insight

This proven, streamlined process for building the right lead scoring system for your business includes a custom simulator and proprietary tools for weighting criteria, generating scoring formulas, and testing assumptions. DemandGen's masterful lead scoring specialists, CRM engineers, and an expert implementation team deliver tremendous sales efficiencies for both B2B and B2C organizations.

LEAD NURTURE FRAMEWORK

Create a scalable program for effective development of inbound leads

To build the framework for nurturing your prospects through the buying cycle, we first identify the unique lead lifecycles of your business, then develop the strategic parameters for your lead nurturing program: messaging strategies, reporting needs, buying cycle content mapping/gap analysis, strategy and plan development for landing pages and form creation, and best-practice training.
